Aruma services Forbes based team, Debra and Simone, are supported by a transdisciplinary team and are part of the Orana Early Childhood Intervention and Education team for Western NSW. Debra and Simone have more than 30 years experience working in the Early childhood sector in rural NSW including as a Director of a service. Debra has experience in the NDIS sector and is a passionate advocate for inclusion of children. Simone has been trained in Picture Exchange and Zones of Regulation and has worked tirelessly in the Early intervention area for the past few years. Both have a strong interest in understanding trauma and how to support children. They are passionate about seeing children reach their potential by assisting preschools to enhance their inclusion practices through training, development of resources, best practice, mentoring and research.
